Some Laundry Facts

After a careful study of the objections some people have to sending their clothes to the laundry, we are now prepared to announce that we have overcome all these objections. First, we have done away with the old methods of laundrying and have installed an up-to-date, modern plant, and invite the public to call and see how their clothes are treated.

New Machinery, New Methods

We have spent hundreds of dollars for the latest improved machinery. Our new washing machines do not wear and tear the clothes. Our new ironing machine does not rub, but presses, therefore doing away with the wear and tear, besides doing much better work than can be done at home or by the old time laundry.

Cost of Home Washing

The cost of a family washing and ironing done at home will amount to about $1.75, allowing one for the washerwoman's wages and the remainder for soap, bluing, coal, the washer woman's dinner and the wear of the implements; besides the annoyance and discomfort. There is also danger of the children contracting colds on wash day which sometimes bridge on serious sickness and a doctor bill that would pay for the family washing for a whole year.

Without a Single Leaf.
A curious tree grows in one of the numerous islands which are situated about the Pacific ocean. It grows, at its full height, to nearly 30 feet, with branches spreading like a huge umbrella, yet it is completely leafless, the species having never been known to show signs of budding. Its sap is used as a medicine, but as fuel the wood is worse than useless, being as hard as iron and quite as difficult to burn.—Home Notes.

The Work of Maj. L'Enfant.
L'Enfant, the architect who laid out Washington, was born in Paris in 1754 and educated in the profession of arms. He came to America during the progress of the revolution and served till Yorktown as a major of engineers in the continental army. One of his works was that of remodeling Federal hall, New York city, just prior to the meeting of congress there. He also designed the badge of the Order of the Glacianaut.

Drink When Flying.

Swallows are said to be the only birds that take their food from the air and drink when flying. On first arriving in this country the birds feed on snails and such insects, but as summer advances winged beetles are also eagerly snugged up.
